

Job Description for the Minister of Music at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Huntsville, Alabama

St. Mark's Lutheran Church seeks a dynamic, gifted Christian musician whose love for God is evident in their passion for music ministry as well as their personal engagement with people of all ages.

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Minister of Music will be instrumental in helping this congregation grow together in faith and fulfill God's vision for our community.

The ability to work collaboratively and creatively with our Church Staff will be essential as St. Mark's develops specific ministry goals for such a time as this. The ideal candidate will be relationally minded, team oriented, and an enthusiastic recruiter and teacher for growing our music ministry for the glory of God. Familiarity with liturgy is desired but not required.

The job description is outlined below:

1. Serve as the primary accompanist and provide worship leadership at all services
2. Create and direct/supervise voice choirs, instrumental groups, and ensembles for all ages
3. Supervise the praise teams and work collaboratively with their leaders and all worship volunteers, especially audi/visual
4. Be adaptive and creative in developing music ministries for worship enhancement and community outreach
5. Work as a team with the Pastors and Director of Christian Education in regular worship planning for weekly and seasonal services as well as digital ministry
6. Maintain a visible presence in the church office and personal engagement within the life of this congregation
7. Schedule and participate in music rehearsals and provide relevant music information in a timely manner
